Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I move to amend Sec. 3701, page 102, lines 19 to 28 by striking out all of said lines.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I object to the amendments, on the grounds that yesterday, in our committee meeting on Mines and Mining, the committee decided that this bill would be reported out for second reading and be recommitted for the purpose of amendment. The reason for that was that Mr. Fertig said that the amendments offered by the mine workers and the operators would be conflicting and, therefore, it would be better to get this bill out and have it passed. Therefore I object to the amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, that the bill is on second reading and that objections do not stay actions on the amendments.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1069 be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as much as I hate to take the opposite view in this, I do not think it would be entirely fair to put this bill back in committee, realizing the remaining days of this Session are few. The motion to recommit this bill at this time would almost amount to the killing of the bill. Now, I understand that there were two sets of amendments. This argument is based upon very different view-points, the view-point of the United Mine Workers, the Bureau of Mines and Mining, and the operators. The bill was originally designed and put in by the Department of Mines and Mining. The United Mine Workers were vitally interested and vitally affected by the provisions of this act; the operators also prepared certain amendments. In the Committee it was decided to put the bill out, and wait until today before we tried to put in the amendments of the United Mine Workers, simply because the operators had asked an opportunity to have their amendments prepared. I am perfectly satisfied to see the bill remain on the second reading calendar, so that we can read the amendments and see what they are. If we put this bill back in committee, the one objection when it comes out, if it does come out, we all realize that tomorrow is the last day of the legislative week. I really think that the bill ought to remain on the calendar, and after reading the amendments, then if we decide to recommit, we can do so. I do not believe in killing a bill just because the amendments are not satisfactory. There is a lot of merit in this bill. The Bureau of Mines and Mining spent many months in working up this bill, and I do not think it is proper to take the bill back to the committee, neither do I think the sponsor wants to kill it. I do not think he intended to have it killed, but it will be killed if it is recommitted. I strenuously oppose having the bill sent back to the committee at this time, and ask my colleagues to put it on the calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair advises that if the bill is recommitted, there will be no opportunity of printing it as amended.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I had the pleasure of nursing this bill for quite a number of weeks. However, the Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining would be very unfair if he did not inform this body on the action taken in committee.

I, myself, have no objection to the amendments, but yesterday the Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining stated, in no uncertain ways, that this bill was to be reported out as committed, and I made that remark on the floor of the Senate last night, with the distinct understanding that the bill would not be amended on the floor, but sent back to the Committee and then we would consider the amendments offered by the United Mine Workers and the amendments offered by the operators. Incidentally, the vote was tie. I might say, I voted the vote that reported it out, but the thought in my mind was that it would go back to the Committee and give us all an opportunity to study the amendments. Now we find amendments offered on the floor of the Senate, and already passed upon. I know of no other action now but to send the bill back and kill it or pass it with the amendments.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator from Cambria, if it is not true that in the Committee that we had a vote there, and was it not stated that in fairness to the operators, who asked time in order to have their amendments prepared, that we did not insert the United Mine Workers amendments in the bill now in fairness to the operators?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, that is true.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, anybody that is interested can easily understand that by having the operators withhold their amendments for a time, this action should take place. We can send the bill back to committee and there kill it. It was only a matter of courtesy that the committee waited on the operators to bring in their amendments. They promised to have them here definitely for this morning. The amendments are not here and they will not be here; in other words, we are simply sending this bill back to have it killed, there is no other way out of it. As I stated before, I am willing to look up the operators' amendments and vote for them if they are proper amendments, but if they do not bring them in and show up with them. Why ask us to kill time simply because the operators object to them and do not have the amendments ready? We have been fair and have given them time, as much time as they asked for, in fact more time than they asked for, and again I state that I object to sending this bill back to committee. Leave it on the calendar where it can be properly scrutinized by everyone.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I simply rise to remark that mindful of the many coal miners and operators in my district, I second, as strongly as I can, the remarks of my good friend, the Senator from Westmoreland.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I have no purpose or intent of recommitting this bill for the purpose of killing it; the understanding among the members of the committee was stated by the Chairman of the Committee. It was not contemplated that any amendment would be offered. I think this difficulty can be settlted if it is agreed that the amendments offered are withdrawn and the bill remain on second reading until the other parties interested has time to prepare their amendments, and all amendments can be offered at the same time. I will agree to withdraw my motion to recommit.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think I have stated my position very clearly. Now that we are going to wait until the other side has its amendments, and the other side will not get these amendments for two or three more days, and it was stated on the record that we are going to wait, that too, will kill the bill. I think if the amendments were accepted by the Senate and the bill should remain on second reading, and if tomorrow they decide to present their amendments, I will be one to stand up and agree to such action.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I offered these amendments for the very purpose of bringing this question to a point. This bill and this matter has been before this Assembly for months, and up till now there is only one set of amendments here.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the thing that is most impressive here is whether this bill was reported out by the Committee and with the same understanding that we report out many bills, that it should be reported out, and after it had a certain number of readings that it would be reported back to the committee. Now, that has been done by many committees of this Senate, and we have been honorable, we members of the Senate, on the floor, to stand by those agreements made with each other. Now then, if this is one of those cases, I am very reluctant to vote to keep this bill out, if the members of that committee reported it out with that understanding. I think that we are in honor bound to stand by the report of that committee under that condition.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think the mere fact that the Senator who made the motion to send the bill back to committee is satisfied to withdraw his motion to send the bill back to committee, if under certain conditions we agree to that, that should answer the question of the Senator from Fayette, that there was no specific agreement other than the fact that they would be fair, and that we would not put in any amendments offered by either group, in order that amendments could be prepared by the operators and presented today on the floor, and if necessary, introduce both sets of amendments, and I again state that any action brought other than the regular procedure, will tend towards killing the bill.

Br. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, yield to interroga-

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will .

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, is the Senator from Westmoreland a member of the Committee on Mines and Mining?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, yes, sir.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, are the statements made by the Chairman of that Committee of that bill correct and true?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, the record speaks for itself. The statements made by the Chairman of this committee are in the record of the Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am asking the Senator from Westmoreland whether they are true. He is a member of that committee and present here.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am a member of that committee and the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is a member of the Senate. When the Senator made the statement on the floor last night, in reporting the bills out, the Senator from Fayette, heard it, as well as I did. I would not be standing here and calling a man a liar, if that is what you want me to do.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am not asking the Senator from Westmoreland to do that, but I am asking the Senator from Westmoreland to stand upon his honor and to state whether or not the committee did report that bill out with that understanding, and whether that was the answer of the committee, of which he is a member and was present.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Fayette, I might say that the action of that committee was only in order that the amendments might be prepared by the operators. In my understanding there was nothing said that the bill had to go back if one side or the other did not prepare their amendments.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Presdent, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to know whether the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Howell, obtained leave of absence before he left the Chamber today?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is not aware of it if he did. There are a number of others who have left without leave. Only two Senators asked for leave of absence, Senator Ruth and Senator Shapiro.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it was understood in committee yesterday that the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Howell, was to have proper amendments prepared, to call on the operators and report back here this morning and present them to the committee, and we anticipated having them read this afternoon. The two men that have had this bill and torn it apart are absent from this chamber and they have in their possession amendments that I gave them, that were offered me by the operators yesterday to put in form to return them to this committee. Of course, I have no objection to the bill in either form. Last night I remarked on this floor that I reported out this bill with the complete understanding that the bill would go back to committee for further amendments. I desire to tell the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that the record shows that the report was made under that condition.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the understanding in the committee is based upon the fact that we wanted to be fair and wait until today for the operators' amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, there was no time mentioned, to the best of my knowledge; it was mentioned however, that these amendments were offered by both groups. I cannot recall of any date being stated.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, was it not also agreed that the bills were to come out for two readings, awaiting the amendments by the Operators and the United Mine Workers and no specific thing was said about where they would be introduced?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it was agreed in committee that the bill would have two readings and be recommitted after it passed second reading for the amendments offered by the United Mine Workers and Coal Operators.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the stand that I have taken is very clearly brought out here by the answer to these questions. I agree that we had an understanding that the operators would have amendments to these bills, but I did not agree to do anything that would allow the operators to withhold their amendments to kill the bill. If we had their amendments in time in order to act on them this morning, and the Chairman says the amendments were in his possession and had been given to somebody and because the Senator went away without further notice, demonstrates the fact that they want to kill these bills. This is a good piece of legislation, the Department of Mines and Mining has worked hard on this particular bill. The United Mine workers should have some say as to what sort of amendments ought to be considered. We stand here tonight and admit to ourselves that the operators have not lived up to their part of the agreement and have not drawn the amendments that we have waited to consider in order to make it a workable bill. We stand here now and say in order to do that, we have to send the bill back to committee, and I object to that.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, there seems to be a wide difference of opinion among the members of this committee who represent the bituminous region in the State, about a bill which has nothing to do with the bituminous region, but all to do with the anthracite part of the mining industry, and I am very sorry that the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, and the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Howell, are not in this Chamber at this time, as they have been working on this bill. In the committee meeting yesterday afternoon a motion was made and carried that this bill come out with both amendments, the amendments offered by the United Mine Workers and the amendments offered by the Operators. The Chairman took it upon himself, with the sponsor of this bill, to go to the Reference Bureau, and they were there told by Mr. Fertig that the two amendments could not be put into this bill without destroying it or without making this bill so that you could not interpret it and understand what it meant, because it changed its substance, and for that reason the Chairman of the Committee then called a meeting of the committee, and to avoid delay asked that the bill be considered and sent out for two readings, which was done. I understand from the Secretary of Mining that the representatives of the Operators have been in conference with him to go over their amendments and they practically had come to an agreement as to the amendments, but I want to say that the attitude taken by the chairman of the Committee is exactly what happened in the committee, that this bill was to come for two readings and then go back for the reason that at that time we could not put the amendments in, and it would give them an opportunity to put those amendments in without spoiling the bill. If we had put the amendments of the United Mine Workers in at that time we would have had to wait until the bill was printed before the other amendments could be put in and I am inclined to think that this Senate should do what it was agreed to do. The Chairman of the Committee made this statement that if the bill came out it was to go back after the second reading, and the sponsor of the bill has asked that it go back after second reading.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not like to prolong this, but I would like to have a little light put on it, as there might be something that I did not understand or not be exactly as I see it. I would like to interrogate the Senator who spoke first, Senator Dando.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, was it not the statement of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, that the bill should come out as presented, that it should come out of committee—

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, did not the Senator from Schuylkill state that whatever happened it should be put out on the floor of the Senate.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I did not say that, but I later remarked that the bill should go back. There was such opposition to the bill at that time in committee by the gentleman who are not present that I was disgusted with the action of those gentlemen. Later I said I did want the bill to come back to that committee in such a form that the bill would not be destroyed, because with the committee acting tomorrow, I believe that we still have time to have it passed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, was it not also with the understanding that the bill was to come out in order that the operators would have an opportunity to present their amendments?

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, not on the floor.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I thank the gentleman from Schuylkill. I have never in my 29 years been accused of having a short memory, and I honestly think that this question is more serious than any question of parliamentary honor or courtesy may go. This is a question whereby the fate of these bills would be decided; if the gentlemen who are opposed to the bill are not here tonight. What guarantee do we have that they will be here tomorrow? How do we know that they will have the amendments ready by tomorrow? How do we know we will have a motion to bring it out of the floor if the amendments are not prepared, and probably not in Harrisburg? Are we to guarantee that this bill will come out in time tomorrow to pass this over to the House to get the proper consideration by the members of the House? I honestly believe we cannot recede from our position. This is too serious a matter. There are two hundred and some thousand men who labor in the mines who are interested in this piece of legislation.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair suggests a way out of the amendments. If the bill is put on the postponed calendar, it would give the opportunity for the other amendments to be presented tomorrow, if they are available. That will solve your difficulty.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I think the Chair made a very good suggestion, and I wish also to clear up that point. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, stated that the operators had an opportunity to present their amendments, and that up until the present time have failed to do so. I do not rise to their defense, but I rise in my own defense. They have probably failed to prepare their amendments, because we invited them and stated that they could offer those amendments when the bill came back to the committee, and as yet the bill has not gone back to the committee; therefore, they have not had any opportunity to offer any amendments.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. PRESIDENT. I move that Senate Bill No. 1069, be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, as I stated here before, to avoid the false charge of intent to kill this bill, I would withdraw my motion to recommit.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

The PRESIDENT. A motion to recommit the bill is withdrawn.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion to postpone the bill?

It was agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE ON STATE BOARDS TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the amendments adopted by the sub-committee on Senate Bills No. 341, 342, and 343, are now prepared and we have them here. I would ask permission for the Senate Committee on State Boards to sit during this Session of the Senate so that the sub-committee may report to the full committee.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? There is no objection, and permission is granted.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, in order that Senate Bill No. 1069, which is now on the postponed calendar, may have an opportunity to pass, I move that Senate Bill No. 1069 be now taken off the postponed calendar and placed on the regular calendar for third reading and final passage tomorrow morning.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The bill will be on the third reading calendar tomorrow morning, you can take it off if you want to and pass it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, we want it off the postponed calendar so that it will be passed tomorrow with the regular third reading bills and sent over to the House.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The bill may be called off the postponed calendar, and that can be done without changing the situation.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1269, on page 38 of the calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion, if there is no objection that we will never get through the second reading calendar if we take up the bills piecemeal.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I am a member of the Committee on State Boards that is going to meet, therefore, I asked for this privilege. I withdraw the request.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 20, 1937.

Whereas, There is now before Congress a resolution for a constitutional amendment requiring all Federal employes and officials, appointed or elected, to pay State and Federal income taxes; requiring state employes and officials to pay Federal income taxes; and requiring employes and officials of National and state banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System to pay state income taxes, and

Whereas, Abolition of the exemptions on such salaries would result in a great increase of revenue to the federal government, thereby reducing the ever-increasing burden upon the taxpayers who can claim no official exemption, and would enable this Commonwealth in the event an income tax is adopted to secure large revenues from these sources, and

Whereas, Certain other reforms of the Federal tax system are necessary to effect the consolidation of the gains which have been made in the national economic recovery, and

Whereas, Repeal of the capital gains and losses section of the Federal income tax law would result in acceleration of the movement to economic recovery; would cause an estimated increase of the Federal government's income by two hundred fifty million dollars as a direct result of increases in the turn over tax on securities and as an indirect result of widespread business improvement and reemployment of workers; would result in an estimated increase of the tax receipts of this Commonwealth for similar reasons; would prevent the exodus of hundreds of millions of dollars of American capital into foreign security markets; would cause a pronounced improvement in the real estate business and the entire construction industry, with corresponding gains in re-employment of persons engaged in said industries; would cause a great increase in the amount of money in circulation and in the amount of new investments, because of the resultant "freezing" of potential profits; and would cause a decrease in the number of investments in tax-exempt securities, and

Whereas, Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine of the State of New York, and many other men of experienced financial judgment, have advocated repeal of the capital gains and losses section of the Federal income tax law, and

Whereas, The Federal income tax law provides for a great number of exemptions from payment of taxes on various securities, whereby many persons escape taxation and, contrary to the best interests of the economic welfare of the people, deprive the government of a substantial source of revenue while other persons find inescapable taxs more burdensome because of such exemptions, and

Whereas, The personal exemptions provided in the Federal income tax law are placed at a rate so high the great majority of persons who fall within the low-income brackets do not directly participate in the financial activities of the Federal government, and

Whereas, Such participation would serve better to acquaint the great majority of our people with the facts involving the fiscal activities of the Federal government and would thus heighten public interest in the financial problems of the nation, and

Whereas, It is necessary to effect the foregoing reforms in order to safeguard the gains in the National economic recovery against the possibilities of inflation, an increase in the amount of our National debt, an increase in the amount of capital invested in tax-exempt securities or in foreign countries, an increase in the number of unemployed or a static condition of the unemployed problem, a restraint upon home construction and building operations, a decrease in the amount of money in circulation, and obstructions to industrial and commercial activity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representative concur), That the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby respectfully memorialized to enact with all convenient speed legislation providing for a constitutional amendment which will abolish existing exemptions on payment of income taxes by all governmental employes and officials, legislation which will repeal the capital gains and losses section of the Federal income tax law, legislation which will abolish the existing exceptions of certain securities, and legislation which will lower the personal income tax exemption to such a figure as to include millions of people who now escape the provisions of the Federal income tax law, and be it further

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of Pennsylvania

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. HARKINS asked and obtained the unanimous consent to introduce a bill, the title of which was read as follows:

An Act validating certain sheriff's sales of real estate and the title to such real estate in the hands of purchasers, their heirs, grantees and assigns.

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, for some time, as you know, I have been receiving letters asking that we give the Governor some assistance in carrying out his duties. This is one which came to me and I would like to read it to the House:

"Dear Governor:

Governor you got my sincere sympathy, on account of the lousey way these here New Dealers down in Washington have been givin' you the double-cross. Nobody can ever say you was tight with your wad when the New Deal needed financin' in Pennsylvania, and it kinda makes me sore the way these New Dealers turn you down every time you go to Washington to ask F. D. R. for a little jack to help out here in Pennsylvania.

"Of course, it's nice to have the President pat you on the back and call you his fair-haired boy, but that don't help none when you get back home and the boys give you a dirty look when you shake your head and they see you been stung again.

"Yesterday I heard you was gettin' ready to go down and try to get another hatful of promissory notes like they give you last year. The papers say the President has laid down on his promise to give you money for the State Authority to go ahead an' build hospitals, colleges, prisons, and so forth. It seems like the President has a poor memory about things up in Pennsylvania. I ain't forgot how I felt when he promised to give us five millions a month for relief and then short-changed us fifteen million dollars. Of course, them millions is mere chicken feed to a New Dealer, but I feel sore every time I go to a movie, or buy a pack of cigarettes or put a gallon of gas into the old car to think that if it hadn't been for the President's bad memory I could keep the change. Now as you ain't gettin' nowhere askin' for money for Pennsylvania, mebbe you'd better let me write a letter for you to take along.

"Here she is:—

'Dear Mr. President, "I would say.

'Dear Mr. President: I take my pen in hand to say unless you can keep some of your promises to me in the future, better than you have in the past, you better get ready to give me my old job back as Ambassador to Austria, because the boys are beginning to whisper that if I can't get anything out of you as Governor, how am I goin' to get anything as Senator, which if you ask me, unless you do something to help pretty quick, I ain't going to be. Which you can take or leave, as either a promise or a threat.

'You remember how you promised me if Pennsylvania would do her part on relief, you would give us $5,000,000 a month for two years, and then went and forgot all about how you owed us fifteen millions more than you paid us. I felt pretty bad about that, but I thought up a good excuse for you. I told the boys it was just because, mebbe, you had a bad memory. Then when we had to call a special session of the Legislature and put on more taxes, I asked you how about the ten million you owed us, for money paid the WPA workers you forgot to send checks to, and unless I was hard of hearing, I got the impression you said all O.K. but you went and forgot that, too.

'So we had to levy a lot more taxes and the wicked corporations have begun to leave the State and the people are gettin' hot under the collar, and we don't have no money to build hospitals and colleges, et cetera, which I have promised. So I take a lot of last year's election returns in my pocket and me and Cammey Vinnet, we fly down to Washington once more, and unless I got a memory worse than yours, you promised me to come across with $20,000,000 PWA funds which I don't see how we can get along without. This ain't Washington,—the Legislature ain't all dumb like Congress. We got a whole raft of engineers and office help set up in a State Authority office, costing a lot of money. If we don't get that $20,000,000 we'll have to fire all these worthy Democrats, and the Legislature'll raise hell for spending all that money.

'Now, Mr. President, promises are grand things. I ought to know, on account of how I have made so many of them myself. But this ain't no Democratic Platform. This is honest injun playin' for keeps. All I've got to say is, if I don't get this cash I'm goin' to have a lot of spare time on my hands for polo after January 15, 1939, and Joe Guffey's goin' to get sore eyes lookin' for the word "Welcome" on the door-mat at the Executive Mansion.

'We're suckers for punishment up here in Pennsylvania, Mr. President, but the folks is gettin' pretty tired buyin' new airplanes to take the place of the ships me and Cammy Vinnet has wore out between here and Washington askin' for money we never get, and when they get their Dutch up, they go out and vote for the damn Republicans, which if you are not careful you may force me to be one again myself.

'Now, Mr. President quit foolin' an get down to brass tacks before you forget again. You know, I can't always sit in this game with rubber chips.

'Yours for more and better promises.

George.'

"Now, Governor, if that don't bring home the bacon you may as well come back and join us Republicans, but don't expect us to get out the band, on account of how we ain't got any money either.

Your friend,

Oswald."

Mr. BROWNFIELD in the Chair.

An Act to amend sections two hundred and two of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by providing additional penalties for killing fish by pollution or explosions

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two hundred of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 200 Pollution of Waters Prohibited Explosives No person shall put or place in any waters within or on the boundaries of this Commonwealth any electricity explosives or any poisonous substances whatsoever for the purpose of catching injuring or killing fish No person shall allow any substance of any kind or character deleterious destructive or poisonous to fish to be turned into or allowed to run flow wash or be emptied into any waters within this Commonwealth unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Board of Fish Commissioners or to the proper court that every reasonable and practicable means has been used to abate and prevent the pollution of waters in question by the escape of deletrious substances]

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 200), page 2, line 14, by inserting before the word "deleterious" the following: "(other than the waters from active coal mines)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I object to the amendment.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment which we propose putting back in this bill were put in the bill over in the Senate and were taken out in the House, and they provide to exempt coal mines that are working. In other words, in both the anthracite and bituminous coal fields, especially the anthracite, it is impossible to control the waters flowing from the coal mines, and if this bill goes through without this amendment it is possible that the mines in the anthracite region will have to shut down, and I ask the members of the House to vote for the amendment

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Senate Bill No. 181, House Bill No. 2277, was introduced by Senator Ruth. It passed this House two years ago and was defeated in the Senate. We see no reason why we should exempt active coal mines for the simple reason that this bill provides for additional penalties for killing fish by pollution or explosion. This bill was amended in Senate committee by adding other than waters from active mines and was amended in the House committee to its original form. This amendment was no doubt written into this bill at the request of the organized mine industry, but instead of protecting the industry it is a threat to producers by paving the way to opening up wholesale pollution and the "wagon mines" and the "bootleg holes." Waters which drain the major coal fields in the anthracite region contain no aquatic life, no fish life, and are therefore not subject to the provisions of this bill. There is only a penalty where there is life in those particular waters. Those waters have been polluted with acid mine drainage for years. I wish to state to the members of the House that the suggested amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne would, however, provide a legal status for bootleg mines which does not now exist and I would ask the members of the House to vote down this amendment.

Mr. ELPERN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill will practically drive the soft coal mines out of business. In other words, when mines throw off water, and a person happens to catch some fish in this water, a dollar fine will be imposed for each fish caught. I say to the members of the House that we have enough laws now affecting the soft coal mines. Why should we put this law on the books? I therefore ask the members to vote this down.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. LaRue, stated in his remarks that the waters in the anthracite coal fields do not contain fish. This is absolutely wrong as there are many of the streams in the anthracite coal fields which do contain fish. If this amendment is permitted to remain in the bill it will practically close every anthracite mine in the anthracite region because the waters flowing from those streams must be drained somewhere.

At the beginning of this session we appropriated, if I am not mistaken, approximately fifty thousand dollars to pay the expenses of the commission to study the anthracite industry. Now, we are coming here with an amendment of half a dozen words which will practically close the entire industry. I personally am in favor of the anti-pollution of streams, but when it is a matter of bread and butter, as it is in the anthracite region, I say that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, should be admitted in this bill, and I ask the members of this House to vote for the amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Elpern.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ELPERN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Westmoreland whether he is for or against the amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne.

Mr. ELPERN. Mr. Speaker, I am for the amendment.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, in the remarks of the gentleman from Westmoreland, in closing I understood him to ask that it be voted down. I am interested in the bituminous coal fields and I just wanted to know whether the gentleman from Westmoreland favored this amendment or not.

Mr. ELPERN. I am in favor of the amendment, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I might say, in answer to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. LaRue, that this amendment will not permit the wholesale opening up of bootleg mines because in bootleg mines they do not use pumps to pump any water out. They just take whatever coal they can from the side of a hill without using any pumps. I have in mind particularly one mine which has been closed for some time, namely the Upper Lehigh Coal Company, which is located on the side of a mountain, and the mine was filled up with water. The stream or creek known as the Little Nescopeck was stocked by fishermen and during the high water this mine overflowed and killed all the fish. That mine is now reopened. Of course, that section where the opening is is on the side of a mountain near a creek but in the event they get high water and that mine overflows again, they will still get mine water in the Little Nescopeck.

There is nobody in this world who wants to eliminate pollution more than I do. Neither do I want to see men put out of work, where it is physically impossible to save the pollution of streams.

I ask the members of this House to vote for this amendment. There is no harm in it. They simply exempt the active coal mines working today. There is no way that you can prevent the seepage of mine waters into these streams, especially in the event of flooding waters, around the anthracite and bituminous coal fields.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for more than twenty-five years, within the scope of my recollection, the Lackawanna River which flows through an industrial valley in Lackawanna County has been used principally for the carrying off of mine drainage. This is the second bill that has been presented to this session of the Legislature, having for its purpose the restoration of the streams in the State of Pennsylvania to the sparkling purity of William Penn's time. Frankly, I feel that any attempt to do anything of that sort in the State of Pennsylvania, because of the industrial makeup of the State, is an ideal impossible of realization. I do not know whether these men who are presenting bills which propose to restore the purity of the waters appreciate the useful purpose that many of these streams are serving in the State of Pennsylvania. Very frankly I think that before any hard and fast rule is set down governing streams in the State of Pennsylvania that the greater value of the streams ought to be ascertained.

This bill emanates, I think, from the sporting element, if I may use that expression, in the State, and the suggestion has been made that we in the hard coal fields are lacking in sporting blood. May I say to you very frankly that nowhere in this great Commonwealth will you find greater sportsmen than in the anthracite and bituminous coal regions. In all the great race track meets, whether it be in the blue grass hills at the Kentucky Derby or on the track at Saratoga, you will find these sturdy sons of the mines on hand to yell and show their sporting blood, but the sporting blood that sends us down to these various championship matches in every branch of sport rebels against the proposition so manifestly unfair to the coal mines of our State.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that an amendment of this sort is very dangerous. I think that however desirable stream purification may be in the State of Pennsylvania, that it positively is not worth purchasing at the price of destroying this industry, and I ask the members of this House to support the amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was very glad to learn that the representatives from the coal regions have such sporting blood at the race tracks, but I noticed that they all voted "no" when we endeavored to have horse racing legalized in Pennsylvania.

I rise to oppose this amendment.

Mr. FLANNERY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny is out of order when he says we voted against horse racing. Only half of them did. Half of them are sports.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in a confidential report made by the Frick Coal Company they reported to their board of directors that the water which pollutes the streams coming from the mines of Pennsylvania could be controlled. I am sorry that I do not have that report with me but I am willing to get it for any member of this House during this sessin because it is in my room at the hotel.

When the smoke nuisance laws were passed industry of Pennsylvania rose up and said "We cannot do without smoke." But today we have corrected the smoke nuisance in the industrial sections of Pennsylvania. Taking the report of the engineers themselves of the coal company, they can keep the waters that come from the mines from polluting the streams of Pennsylvania, which destroy the fish and at the same time endanger the lives of the people who have to drink the waters of the rivers. Therefore, I ask that you vote against this amendment.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate my "tiny" friend, the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the members of the House, I would like to ask the gentleman from Luzerne what he means by the term in this bill "active mines." For instance, would a mine suspended for a couple of years, without having been definitely abandoned, be called an "active mine" in this bill. Would that be an active mine under this bill?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, a mine that may be suspended for one year, two years or three years, but still having pump runners and fires in the boiler room to keep the water out of that mine, with the expectation that somebody will be put back to work, is an active mine.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I might say if the Frick Coal Company issued a report to their board of directors to the effect that mine waters can be controlled from polluting the streams in the State, I wish they would come into the anthracite region and try to control the flood waters from washing out and working down to Harrisburg in the Susquehanna River the fine coal that is being mined by these river boats. The coal industry today wants to save all of the fine coal they can and they are doing everything possible to keep that fine coal intact. Yet they are not able to prevent the fine coal from seeping into the rivers of this State. If they cannot do that, how in the name of God are they going to control the flood waters up in the anthracite region from flowing into streams that may have aquatic life in them?

I say to you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment makes clear that no operation shall be held responsible for any flood waters of any active mine continuing on in the same way that they have for the past one hundred and fifty years.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would just like to take two minutes off to answer my good friend from Allegheny, Mr. Holland. He made a statement to the effect that the smoke nuisance in Pittsburgh had been considerably curbed. I am just wondering what the gentleman's attitude would be if some sort of legislation were passed here that would eliminate it entirely from the City of Pittsburgh, which is perfectly satisfied, I think, to put up with the soot and smoke because it means payrolls, it means profit, it means comfort and happiness. From the sentiment rooted deeply in the hearts of the representatives of the anthracite coal region, I know that they are looking forward to the day when we can sit on the banks of the Lackawanna River and angle for the speckled specimens of the finny tribe, but we have entirely too much concern and love for our families and too much concern for the industry that has been so kind to us.

With respect to the remark of the gentleman from Allegheny as to the votes of the anthracite members on the horse racing bill, from the fact that he made the statement after I had spoken on the floor, I am led to believe that he had reference to me. May I advise the gentleman that four of the six members of Lackawanna county voted with the "gee gees."

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have the most profound respect for such men as my good friend, Representative LaRue and the others in this House who have been so much concerned about the purification of the streams of the State of Pennsylvania. However, I cannot sit idly by without coming to the defense of this amendment which Mr. Yourishin has offered to this bill. I certainly am in accord with the purification of the streams of this State in so far as they can be clearified without putting people out of business and without stifling industry. I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that this is what will happen in many cases in Western Pennsylvania where we have the soft coal industry. As you very well know, that is one of the greatest industries that we have in the State of Pennsylvania, perhaps the greatest of them all. There are many mines in that section of the State which would absolutely be put out of business if this law is to go through as it is. I think that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, would clarify the situation so that it would be workable.

In reply to what Mr. Holland has to say regarding the smoke nuisance in Pittsburgh, I submit to the members of the House that one of the biggest industries we had in the City of Pittsburgh, namely the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company, were driven out on account of being harrassed by demands that they eliminate the smoke from their stacks. I have heard a great many people in the City of Pittsburgh say that they wish they had some of the smoke back from that industry as well as from many others which were driven out. I do feel this is a matter which is vital to those of us in the western end of the State. It will affect millions of dollars of invested capital and it will affect numberless workmen who would be put out of business if these amendments were not offered.

Therefore, members of the House, I ask that you support the amendment which have been offered by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Aukerman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. AUKERMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we have but a very short time left for this session and a short postponement may be very injurious to a bill, would the gentleman from Blair kindly explain the reason why he desires this bill to be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to explain that reason. It is due to an agreement made among the members of the Appropriation Committee yesterday so as not to delay the bill too much, when we decided to bring it out on the calendar, although there are some vital amendments necessary to be made and we have to prepare these amendments, and we decided to prepare them on the floor of the House rather than hold the bill in committee for those amendments. I assure the members of the House that I am not trying to delay the passage of the bill, that I am only trying to have the bill put in its proper form before final passage in the House.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, if that is the agreement of the Appropriations Committee, as one of the conditions of putting the bill on the calendar, I will withdraw any objections.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1894, as follows:

An Act relating to soil conservation and soil erosion and regulating land use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion providing for the organization of soil consevation districts as governmental subdivisions of the Commonwealth with powers of enacting ordinances and regulations for the prevention and control of soil erosion and the conservation of soil resources prescribing the officers and employes thereof and defining their powers and duties creating the State Soil Conservation Board in the Department of Agriculture and imposing powers and prescribing duties thereon relative to the enforcement of this act providing financial assistance to such soil conservation districts prescribing penalties and making an appropriation

Section 1 Short Title This act may be known and cited as the "Soil Conservation Districts Law"

A The condition That the farm and grazing lands of this Commonwealth are among the basic assets of the Commonwealth and that the preservation of these lands is necessary to protect and promote the health safety and general welfare of its people that improper land-use practices have caused and have contributed to and are now causing and contributing to a progressively more serious erosion of the farm and grazing lands of this Commonwealth by wind and water that the breaking of natural grass plant and forest cover have interfered with the natural factors of soil stabilization causing loosening of soil and exhaustion of humus and developing a soil condition that favors erosion that the topsoil is being blown and washed out of fields and pastures that there has been an accelerated washing of sloping fields that these processes of erosion by wind and water speed up with removal of absorptive topsoil causing exposure of less absorptive and less protected but more erosive subsoil that failure by any land occupier to conserve the soil and control erosion upon his lands causes a washing and blowing of soil and water from his lands onto other lands and makes the conservation of soil and control of erosion on such other lands difficult or impossible

B The consequences That the consequences of such soil erosion in the form of soil-bowing and soil-washing are the silting and sedimentation of stream channels reservoirs dams ditches and harbors the loss of fertile soil material in dust storms the piling up of soil on lower slopes and its deposit over alluvial plains the reduction in productivity or out-right ruin of rich bottom lands by overwash of poor sub-soil material sand and gravel swept out of the hills deterioration of soil and its fertility deterioration of crops grown thereon and declining acre yields despite development of scientific processes for increasing such yields loss of soil and water which causes destruction of food and cover for wildfire a blowing and washing of soil into streams which silts over spawning beds and destroys water plants diminishing the food supply of fish a diminishing of the underground water reserve which causes water shortages intensifies periods of drought and causes crop failures an increase in the speed and volume of rainfall run-off causing severe and increasing floods which bring suffering disease and death impoverishment of families attempting to farm eroding and eroded lands damage to roads highways railways farm buildings and other property from floods and from dust storms and losses in navigation hydo-electric power municipal water supply irrigation developments farming and grazing

C The appropriate corrective methods That to conserve soil resources and control and prevent soil erosion it is necessary that land-use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion be discouraged and discontinued and appropriate soil-conserving land-use practices be adopted and carried out that among the procedures necessary for wide-spread adoption are the carrying on of engineering operations such as the construction of terraces terrace outlets check-dams dikes ponds ditches and the like the utilization of strip cropping lister furrowing contour cultivating and contour furrowing land irrigation seeding and planting of waste sloping abandoned or eroded lands to water conserving and erosion-preventing plants trees and grasses forestation and reforestation rotation of crops soil stabilization with trees grasses legumes and other thick-growing soil-holding crops retardation of run-off by increasing absorption of rainfall and retirement from cultivation of steep highly erosive areas and areas now badly gullied or otherwise eroded

D Declaration of policy It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to provide for the conservation of the soil and soil resources of this Commonwealth and for the control and prevention of soil erosion and thereby to preserve natural resources control floods prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs assist in maintaining the navigability of rivers and harbors preserve wild-life protect the tax base protect public lands and protect and promote the health safety and general welfare of the people of this Commonwealth

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1818, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction for reimbursing fourth class school districts upon certain increases of the salaries of members of the teaching staffs of elementary schools in such school districts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Monroe—in the first place, let me say, as I understand it this is the appropriation which will raise the pay of the school teachers in the fourth class school districts, is that correct?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. TURNER. And, Mr. Speaker, under this bill will it not also be necessary for the school districts to make a contribution?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, very likely that is correct.

Mr. TURNER. In other words, Mr. Speaker, it is going to cost the fourth class school districts more money. This bill does not take care of the entire payment to the fourth class school district teachers.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I would say, substantially, Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 1839

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1839, Printer's No. 717, entitled "An act to limit the power of the Supreme and Superior Courts in declaring laws enacted by the General Assembly to be unconstitutional" was defeated on final passage on May 11, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. McGEE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walsh, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McGee, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. McGEE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walsh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALSH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walsh, whether this is not the measure which was defeated and which provided that a vote of the Supreme Court or a decision of the Supreme Court to declare an act of the Legislature unconstitutional had to be by a six to one vote?

Mr. WALSH. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this matter was very extensively debated when it was before the House, the members were given every opportunity to consider it and it seems to me, therefore, there is no reason now to reconsider that vote and we ought to vote against reconsideration at this time.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. KANE.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. McGEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1155, Printer's No. 806, on page 41 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BLANK.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1155, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph one of clause (a) of section forty-one of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 447) entitled "An act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors and of trust estates including the appointment bonds rights powers duties liabilities accounts discharge and removal of executors administrators guardians and trustees herein designated as fiduciaries the administration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents widow's and children's exemptions debts of decedents rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof the lien thereof sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment thereof judgements and executions therefor and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate legacies including legacies charged on land the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from the lien of legacies and other charges the appraisement of real estate devised at a valuation the ascertainment of the curtilage of dwelling houses or other buildings devised the abatement and survival of actions and the substitution of executors and administrators therein and suits against fiduciaries investments by fiduciaries the organization of corporations to carry on the business of decedents the audit and review of accounts of fiduciaries refunding bonds transcripts to the court of common pleas of balances due by fiduciaries the rights powers and liabilities of non-resident and foreign fiduciaries the appointment bonds rights powers duties and liabilities of trustees durante absentia the recording and registration of decrees reports and other proceedings and the fees therefor appeals in certain cases and also generally dealing with the jurisdiction powers and procedure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents" as amended by further providing with respect to investments of trust funds by fiduciaries.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not going to take the time of the House again to argue this bill. It has been argued, I think, twice and certainly the members of the House are familiar with its terms. The bill is in the same position with no amendments, it still affects the small investor and, therefore, I would ask the members to vote "no".

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware whether or not he said in the debate on this bill on Tuesday of this week that he had been advised by competent authorities that no investments in mortgage pools or participations were permitted for trust funds, whether they were or were not restricted to legal investments.

Mr. TURNER. I do not recall that I said it that way, Mr. Speaker. My information was that you had said that this would not prevent the fiduciaries from investing in these types of securities if they were not restricted to legal investments. My information is that under the amendments which you have placed in the bill there can be no further investments in mortgage pools and participations as far as trust funds are concerned.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether the gentleman differentiates between legal and non-legal investments?

Mr. TURNER. Of course, Mr. Speaker, there is a difference between legal investments and non-legal investments. There are legal investments for trust companies and non-legal investments.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware whether or not if this bill is passed that mortgage pools and participations are prohibited in legal investments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am given to understand that they would be wiped out. I cannot go any further than that. The authority that I have is one that I do not like to repeat on the floor of the House, but he is certainly one who ought to know what is in this bill and I consider him to be a better authority than I am.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I would respectfully refer him to page 30 of the bill on lines 5 and 7, which completely answers the argument.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the members of the House to support the Committee on Banking, which is desirous of having this bill passed. I am sorry that the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. VanSickle, is not here today, and in his absence he asked that I call the bill up and I now ask the membership of the House to vote in favor of the bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLANK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia by what authority he says that the Committee on Banking would like to have this bill passed.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, the authority is that the Committee on Banking approved this bill and decided to report it out favorably to the body of the House.

Mr. TURNER. My recollection is, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman put amendments in this bill in committee. The bill was originally an Administration bill, is that not correct?

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, that is correct, but I would like to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if he will not admit that this bill was reported favorably upon by the Committee on Banking.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think that is a self-evident fact, that it was reported on favorably because it now happens to be on the calendar. I happen to be a member of that committee and so are several other members on this side of the House, and I have not heard them say that they would like to have it passed.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman from Delaware whether or not he would expect that they would request that it be passed.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is so self-evident that I am not going to answer that question.

Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that this whole subject is being beclouded with something that does not belong here. I have a lot of respect for the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, and for what I think is a very honest belief in his opposition to mortgage pools. He has expressed that belief, he did it in the Committee on Banking from time to time, and he has expressed it on the floor of the House. This is a Department bill; when it came in it did not have this amendment in it. We also have, I think, No. 1047. I said that the Banking Department had presented this bill and it did not have this feature in it. In addition to that, I believe we have two other measures dealing with the investment of trust funds. One of them in a Banking Department measure and I don't remember whether the other one is or not, but it was a measure introduced and supported by the investment bankers and the bankers and trust companies and so forth of Pennsylvania who I understand had for a considerable period of time a committee that intelligently discussed this whole question to try to put safeguards around the mortgage pools and to provide for better administration. I have a bill on the calendar, No. 2114, which deals with mortgages and their liquidation. It seems to me that under all these circumstances we should not inject into this bill a provision that narrows it in such a way that the trustee would not have any authority to invest in something which we are creating and allowing to exist under the laws of Pennsylvania. We have now in the Banking Committee, I do not remember exactly whether it has been reported out,—a measure permitting them to invest in other forms of securities which certainly have no higher rating than do our mortgage pools. Therefore, to take this bill, which is a good bill, and to prevent the investment of the small funds, of the small investor for the minor who has a small estate, in participation or mortgage pools seems to be working an injustice on the smaller communities. It may be all right in Philadelphia but it is a hardship on our smaller communities.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 19, 1937.

Whereas, Withdrawal of the S. E. R. B. from the sponsorship of the State Sewing projects means the return of approximately nine thousand (9,000) women in the State of Pennsylvania alone to direct relief rolls financed by the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, The work relief plan for these women and their families has been definitely proven the cheaper plan, and withdrawal of same will react unfavorably on the communities who have received the pay-roll benefit of the plan, and the clothing provided to the needy of our own community has proven a wonderful asset, together with the restoration of human value, and juvenile delinquency has been decreased through the return of standard decency in homes, which was caused previously by inadequate relief grants, and

Whereas, Luzerne County is faced with the dismissal of five hundred fifty (550) families involving two thousand two hundred (2,200) persons from the sewing project who are at the present time receiving grants from the sewing projects. The closing of these projects at the present time would cause the possibility of increasing relief rolls supported by the State and cause these families to again become discouraged and victims of undernourishment caused by the present inadequate relief grants. It is certain that the State of Pennsylvania can save money by the continuance of the sponsorship of these projects by the S. E. R. B. and

Whereas, Luzerne County would save the sum of five thousand sixty-nine ($5,069.00) dollars monthly by the contribution of the material cost of these projects. The county has benefited greatly, the business men have benefited and the Commonwealth has benefited by the process of a "work" of gainful quality instead of "relief" and its demoralizing effect, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly direct the Bureau of Assistance of the Department of Welfare to prevent the cessation of these swing projects and that the State Relief Director be instructed to continue the sponsorship of these projects and retain former relief families in gainful employment with a minimum of State Relief expenditure.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Welfare.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

BILL RE-REFERRED

The PRESIDENT. Senate Bill No. 1380 (House Bill No. 906) was inadvertently referred to the Committee on State Boards. This is now corrected withdrawing it from State Boards, and the Chair now refers it to the Committee on Appropriations. It is an appropriation bill.

REQUEST FOR CALL OF THE SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to make a statement; yesterday or Friday, I remarked that this week the members of this Senate who would leave without leave of absence I would ask a call of the House. I see no reason for a small group of us to be here until Friday evening and try to pass upon important Legislation with a handful of members and I shall carry out my threat. Therefore, Mr. President I ask for a call of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires that all the people except members shall leave the floor. We cannot do business in this manner having all kinds of people running in on the floor.

The Chair, in fairness to the Senate, because the motion was anticipated by sending for the Senators who are here in the building, the Chair wishes the Senator from Cambria would delay action on the motion until the Senators have had time to come in. Is that alright with the Senator from Cambria?

The Chair requests the Sergeant-at-Arms to send for the Senators who were in the building before the motion was made, and in fairness to the Senators who are out, perhaps on proper business, they should be allowed to come in.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I will recede temporarily from that motion, awaiting to see the number of Senators who might be present in the next fifteen minutes. Therefore, Mr. President, I move that the Senate take a recess for fifteen minutes.

The PRESIDENT. The Senate must proceed with the work, if the Senator from Cambria will withdraw his motion for a recess. We have a quorum on the floor; nevertheless, the Chair requests the Sergeant-at-Arms to bring the Senators in.

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1190, (House Bill No. 1186), as follows:

An Act authorizing school districts to make contracts of group accident insurance for the benefit of pupils in vocational schools at the expense of the school district defining the status of the school district and pupils under existing and future insurance laws and requiring school districts to make certain reports to the Department of Public Instruction

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree on the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, these bills are appropriating money to create the erection of schools along vocational lines. This bill, I do not know who or what source is back of this bill, but it authorizes the taking out of group insurance for the benefit of these people for whom we are creating vocational schools and its seems to me that this can be nothing more or less than an attempt to establish for some insurance agent or company, and I cannot for the life of me understand why the Department of Public Instruction should be directed to take out group insurance for vocational students that may not be in the school for more than one year, or two years at the most, or may not attend for the whole year, and yet we are asked to pass a law authorizing the taking out of group insurance by the Department of Public Instruction, first, for the purpose of protecting them against accidents, and everyone knows, or should know, that the Department is not responsible, or that the State is not responsible or liable for accidents or negligence in such cases; and, secondly, to allow them to take out life insurance policies on group insurance, at least that was the condition of the bill when it was in Committee, whatever kind of insurance it protected. I cannot see the necessity for this bill at all.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

I move that this bill be recommitted.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I believe that Senator Ruth, the Chairman of the Committee on Education, is well informed on this bill and I do not believe that it would be proper courtesy, or advisable to take any action on this bill until Senator Ruth is present. Therefore, I ask that the bill go over in its order.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion and ask unanimous consent that it go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 298, as follows:

An Act regulating proceedings against attorneys-at-law for disbarment and contempt of court

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in every proceeding before any court of record of this Commonwealth except an appellate court for the disbarment of an attorney-at-law or wherein an attorney-at-law shall be charged with contempt of court such attorney-at-law shall have the right to demand a trial by an impartial jury which in the case of disbarment proceedings shall be a jury of the county wherein the attorney-at-law regularly practices and which in the case of contempt proceedings shall be a jury of the county wherein the alleged contempt was committed

In such proceedings for disbarment and contempt of court no change of venue shall be granted by the court except upon the written request of the attorney-at-law against whom the proceedings are had

In contempt proceedings the attorney-at-law shall have the right to file with the court at any time prior to the hearing a demand for the retirement from said proceedings of any judge if the alleged contempt arises from an attack upon the character or conduct of such judge Upon the filing of such demand the presiding judge shall designate some other judge to preside in such contempt proceeding

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the sponsor of the bill, for my benefit, and I think for many others, the purpose of the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Cumberland, I will explain that this bill is intended to free the legal profession from apparent collusion that now exists between it and the Judiciary, through the exercise of disbarment and contempt proceedings. It does appear to a great many of the attorneys that after they have spent a great number of years in colleges studying for the profession and then have passed the State Board examination and been admitted to the practice of the law, that they should not be summarily deprived of their profession, especially after the attorney has been practicing for thirty or forty years and is well advanced in years, without having his right before being disbarred to be determined by a jury of his peers. This bill merely provides that in case of disbarment and contempt proceedings the attorney should stand on the same footing as any other citizen who has a very serious matter involved, and under the Constitution he should have the right to demand a trial by jury and have the matter determined by a jury of his peers. That is all this bill provides.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I guess so.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I suppose the Senator from Fayette knows that a member of the bar can be disbarred without the necessity of committing crime.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, yes, that is true.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette tell me what charges will be submitted under this Act to the jury, to determine the question based on the contempt.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the charges upon which the disbarment or the contempt is based.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there is nothing in the Act that sets up the procedure on which the question can be submitted to a jury.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that is correct, but I do not want the Senator from Philadelphia to labor under the impression that that matter was not considered in the drawing up of this bill and reporting it out. We consulted very much at length with Mr. Fertig and it is his opinion that the procedure is provided for under the law as it now stands. That the Courts have the right to prescribe the rules governing the procedure. It is already covered by the law.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette state if this bill has the endorsement of the Bar Association?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, while I did not solicit the blessing of that August Body, I do have letters from members of the Bar throughout the State, in their private capacities, supporting the bill and commending me for introducing the bill. Now I have no communication from any Bar Association or any member of the Bar opposing the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President. I am obliged to the Senator from Fayette for his answers and I have no desire to question the motives back of this bill, and I think there is a great deal of merit in the position which he took in explaining the bill, but I am afraid if we are going to pass this kind of a law we are going to make the right to practice law a vested right. In my opinion it never has been, nor should it ever be. The practice of the law is a privilege to be exercised by those people who, under the rules and regulations of those people who have the right to set up rules and regulations as to what gives you the right to practice law. I have seen many cases in which some lawyers have been disbarred where they should not have been, and I know a number of cases where lawyers have not been disbarred who should have been, but that does not justify us in changing a rule which is substantial, and that is whether this Body has the right even without alteration to decide even after the people have voted to decide what are the qualifications of their members. The members of the Senate of the United States have the same right and the Courts should have that right to say who should have the privilege of practicing before them. We still have the right as members of the Body to appeal to the Supreme Court, which sits in judgment on the appeal.

Under the circumstances, it seems to me, that the public should have the right, since they have the right to say whether these members shall continue to be members of the bar, the public should have the right to have confidence in the fact that judges will not allow persons to practice law who have no right and who are not decent and respected and honorable persons in their profession. With all due respect to the Senator from Fayette, I hope he will not consider it any affront to him or his bill, but I want to vote against this bill and register my protest against creating a vested right to practice law. I do not think the right to practice law should be a vested right. It is one of those privileges that should remain a privilege and not a right.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, It seems to me that this bill goes pretty far in that it allows a jury, who are not familiar with the ethics of the legal profession, to determine the question of disbarment, and it seems to me that if there is to be a jury trial, and there might be cases where it might be very well justified, it should be a special finding only of the fact, even with the question of fitness to be applied by the Court.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, of course, there are many situations that this bill is intended to correct, and the one that is uppermost in the minds is the one that we must take cognizance of, irrespective of how careful we want to be in talking about the integrity of the Courts of our Commonwealth and all over the United States, but there is this condition, that the Judges who sit on the benches of our Commonwealth are as human as the rest of us. They are amenable to political influence, they are amenable to all the other prejudices and morals that all other examiners are amenable to. The legal profession in these United States is an honorable profession, but it does seem in the past years that they who ought to know more about our government and the politics of our nation have not exercised the intelligence that their profession imposes upon them in order to defend the principles that are fundamental to our American institutions, principles that have been effected by decisions handed down by our Courts, and because of the fear of disbarment or contempt for any criticism that we might make of the Courts decision, we are under a sort of coercion and we have to keep our minds closed, we cannot criticize the decision, we cannot criticize the judge for any motives that he may have for rendering that decision, for fear that we will be brought into court for contempt proceedings or disbarment proceedings lodged against us. Now I say no matter how cautious we want to be in dealing with the integrity of our judiciary, nevertheless, the fact stares us in the face that the judiciary has in years past exercised that coercion, and I think that we ought to condemn that, we ought to free the legal profession so that they may properly criticize the opinion of the Court, publicly criticize a judge who renders a decision from improper motives and if the attorney who tried the case, who is familiar with the facts and might well know the motive behind the rendering of that decision. I say that the legal profession ought to be free from this fear and coercion that constantly is over them when decisions are made which are improper and which should be brought to the public's attention. Now, that is the situation; however, I am not here to say that the bill can be drawn up in such language and with such provisions as to meet the opinions and desires of everybody, and I say that the bill is aimed at correcting that condition that holds the legal profession under a sort of a fear to come out publicly and criticize, or bring to the public's attention, a decision that may not be proper, or bring to the public's attention the motive behind that decision.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I merely want to rise and say that I find myself in agreement with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, in reference to this bill, and at the same time to say what seems to me that is not quite the fact with reference to criticism of the Court. Mr. President, I never heard of a disbarment proceeding that grew out of criticism of a judge. This Act includes not only contempt proceedings, not only disbarment proceedings, but contempt proceedings. At the present time the whole machinery is set up for the regulation of the Bar and the disbarment of the attorney who fails to follow the ethical standards set up for the practice of this profession. There has been a great effort in the last few years by the lawyers and the judges themselves to clean up the bar. We all know that the bar has been brought into disrepute in many instances in the last few years, because of the failure of lawyers to live up to the standards that have been prescribed for them. I think that this bill is a step backward in that attempt to clean up our bar and to bring it back to the position it has held. As I say, I agree with the Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Shapiro and the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, and in spite of the fact that I recognize the high motive back of this by the sponsor, I do not think this bill should pass.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, as far as I can understand, this Senate Bill No. 899 creates a commission to interpret all misdemeanors committed in Pennsylvania, for the benefit of our citizens. I have been trying to ascertain how many misdemeanors there are in Pennsylvania. I failed to discover, and am of the opinion that this bill is highly unnecessary, and that the only way that you can discover misdemeanors is by committing one.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I don't want to make myself obnoxious to the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, but I feel compelled to ask him whether this appropriation to the Department of Agriculture went through the Appropriation Committee.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I think if the Senator will read the bill he will find that it does not carry an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I find myself wondering just what is back of this bill, will the sponsor explain it to me?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, this bill requires the Department of Public Instruction to post notices of revocation of licenses, that is all the bill does.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill is a bill prepared at the request of the Department of Public Instruction, because of the number of instances where licenses have been revoked or lost by violation of the Act. There is no means of placing it before the public so that they might not be fooled. For that reason, in order to enable them to notify the public and place them on notice that those individuals are not permitted to practice the trade or profession, this bill was prepared and introduced in the Senate. I think it is an excellent bill and it should have the help of the Senate in carrying into effect these laws.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1072, entitled:

An Act to fix the number of Senators in the General Assembly of the State to apportion the State into senatorial districts as provided by the Constitution and to regulate the election of and the terms of office of the present and future elected Senators.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call up at this time for action, Senate Bill No. 1072, on page 17 of the Calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1072, entitled:

An Act to fix the number of Senators in the General Assembly of the State; to apportion the State into senatorial districts, as provided by the Constituion; and to regulate the election of, and the terms of office of, the present and future elected Senators.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is a bill that re-apportions the districts of the State and as the bill takes away from my district two of my best wards, I would like to have the privilege of voting on this bill "absent."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendment: amend Section 1, page 2, line 8 by striking out between the word "twenty-seventh" and the word "fortieth" the word "thirty-fourth"; amend Section 1, page 2, line 15 by inserting after the word "twenty-ninth" and before the word "forty-fourth" the word "thirty-fourth"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I object.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the gentlemen to satisfy themselves took my district and tore it apart to suit the gentlemen's convenience. I am satisfied with the apportionment, but I would like to get a portion. I think the district that I live in should be divided to suit the convenience of everybody all over the city. I have not been consulted in this matter, and while I am interested in this apportionment, whether the bill is killed in the House or Senate does not interest me. I am offering an amendment for the purpose of increasing the proportion. As this bill is now drawn, instead of accomplishing the result of evenly dividing the district, they have created a district for me which gives me even less votes and less population than I had under the present condition, which was considered to be too small. Whose idea it is I do not know and I do not care, but if this is what you call apportionment, then I do not unerstand the word, and I am opposed to the bill in its present form. What I am doing with this amendment is to add a ward to my district so as to make it more equitable in the seventh district. I am sure that would not satisfy a certain other gentleman, and, therefore, I want to take that additional ward so that we can have 350,000 population instead of 300,000, or 430,000, and my district would have 142,000 population. If that is what you call apportionment, then you may as well stop fooling about it and let the public know it. The responsibility is on the Legislature to make an apportionment, and I think we ought to know it. I am tired of this method of amending a bill with uneqitable apportionments. The Constitution says we shall apportion equitably, and if we are going to have one gentleman have one-fifth of the population in Philadelphia and another one have one-twentieth of the population, that, in my opinion, is not equitable apportionment.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS, Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether or not the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, was consulted about this bill.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, it seems that since time immemorial, as it is quite a long time since this bill was introduced, and week after week the Democratic Senators from Philadelphia have been holding conferences and it seems impossible for them to get together, there was only one thing to do, and that was to bring this bill out. Now how far it is proposed to carry this fight on the floor among these Philadelphia Senators is beyond me, but if the rest of us are interested in this bill at this time we will have to just vote on it. We propose to adjourn next week.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President. will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, state whether it is not true that when he presented to me and showed the district that I had I declared myself satisfied with it, in view of the fact that it had the thirty-fourth ward included in that district.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny state whether it is not true that after that, without knowledge on my part, when the re-apportionment came out, the thirty-fourth ward was taken out of my district and put into someone else's district?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President. that is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it is because of that that I say this is not apportionment, and this will have an ill effect for a few fellows, but I am not going to tolerate it without a protest on the floor.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is altogether wrong when he says that the thirty-fourth ward was taken out of his district. He never did have the thirty-fourth ward. I also state that I am satisfied with the bill the way it has been drawn. I do not know who took part in the bill and I do not care. I never object much to what is going on in regard to a bill, and I am satisfied to vote for this bill the way it was drawn up, but I am not satisfied with the amendments. I have been awfully good natured in already giving away half of my district to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, but I do not want to give him all of my district. If Senator Shapiro has a good district he ought to fight to hold on to it. He is trying to get rid of his own district, which perhaps is no good, or they do not want him, and tries to get hold of mine. Now I have worked hard in my little district for the last thirty-five or forty years, before Senator Shapiro was ever heard of as a Democrat, and I would like to hold on to my good little people that I worked hard to bring them into the Democratic party. I do not like to take up much time on the floor, and I thought my friend Senator Shapiro had stated that he was not going to take up much time in speech-making, so I thought we were through listening to him. Now I do not know myself whether the Republican party really lost a hell of a lot or not, and I want to say, Mr. President, to finish up and be awfully nice about it, that I am satisfied with the bill as it stands. Perhaps the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, will tell you that I had nothing to do with the drawing up of the bill, and I do not care who had a part in it, I am going to vote for it as it stands, and if amended, I am going to vote against the bill.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is not a laughing matter. It seems to be very serious to these men, particularly in Philadelphia. Since we have a large calendar I would suggest that we set five o'clock this afternoon to take up this bill—I wauld suggest that we make it four-thirty. I want to say to the gentlemen we have a great many bills here to take care of at this time, and I think that there ought to be an effort made by the Philadelphia Senators to adjust this in the meanwhile. This is the reason I want to give them some time for it. Suppose we make it four-thirty.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I appreciate the attitude of the Senator from Monroe, I think it is proper, and I want to say very frankly that I have been trying to adjust this matter for a month. Referring to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, I can only, in a Christian spirit, say: "Forgive him Father for he knows not what he says."

But what I am trying to find out is if it is understood that it will take one hundred and ninety thousand votes to make an equitable distribution of the district, and I say to the Senator from Philadelphia and the rest of the members of this Senate that I am not satisfied personally with the situation, because I promise you that I would not worry about four years from now, I am not sure that I want to be in the Senate of Pennsylvania for another term, but I am interested in knowing why and for what purpose and by what means a bill which is supposed to be an apportionment bill, which was to give me two hundred and some odd thousand, (two hundred and fourteen thousand). in the district, which is designated as the Seventh Senatorial District, was reduced to one hundred and forty thousand or less, by taking out of the district, under the original plan, a ward known as the thirty-fourth ward.

Now this is not apportionment. I am not talking about my district, that does not interest me, but in taking this ward and placing it in the other district they have increased that district beyond its proportion and have decreased mine below its proportion. Now that cannot be for any real purpose of apportionment. I would like the members of the Senate to know that I have tried to get that straightened out, but it apparently cannot be done, and if it cannot be done it is not apportionment.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I move you that we vote down the amendments and vote on the original bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, that the amendments are not before the Senate.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, because another suggestion is going to be made, I withdraw my motion to take it up this afternoon. I suggest the bill go over in its order.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I do not think I can remedy the situation in regard to this bill. The committee has done the best they could under adverse conditions. We have tried to apportion the State to suit every individual Senator who appealed to the Committee for the re-apportionment according to political expediency. That cannot be done. My district has lost two very valuable wards to me and I believe I will have to join with the Senator from Philadelphia, in voting "absent."

The complaint of Senator Shapiro is well founded. He has a population now of one hundred and sixty-one thousand, and through the addition of this thirty-fourth ward, which happens to be in Senator McCreesh district, its population would be increased to two hundred and fifty-five thousand, a fair ratio. By taking away the thirty-fourth ward from Senator McCreesh's district his population will be lowered to approximately two hundred twenty-four thousand. That is an equitable re-apportionment. No matter how long we argue we would not appease the desire of every Senator. I appeal to this body to vote for the amendment offered by Senator Shapiro and vote down the amendments proposed to be offered by Senator McCreesh.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair states that there are no amendments before the Senate.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

he is not here. I would like to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill will involve the Commonwealth in an expenditure of perhaps a million dollars, and in the absence of the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, I ask that the bill go over in order.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I do not believe it does.

NAYS—1

Mallery,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1193, (House Bill No. 1355), entitled:

An Act to amend paragraphs one three and five of section one of the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty seven) entitled "An act to provide for the erection maintenance and regulation of public morgues in the several counties of this Commonwealth for the care and disposal of bodies removal thereto and providing for the payment of certain expenses of the same by the proper county or district or by the estate of the deceased person and providing for the disposal of the personal effects of unclaimed dead" as amended by transferring certain powers from the county commissioners to the coroner in counties of the first class.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Senate and House have already passed a bill, as I understand it, which removes from the county commissioners of Philadelphia County the power of burial of dead bodies and places it in the coroner's office, and the coroner, of course, by action of the voters, is a Democrat. This gives the coroner's office unlimited power to dispose of those bodies, to erect a morgue at an unlimited expense, without the consent of a council that has to appropriate the money. It gives them the right to buy an ambulance and increase the cost of the burial of the dead tremendously in Philadelphia. It gives them the right to appoint four or five new jobs, or maybe to ten. This bill is in no sense an economy measure; it is simply a part of the scheme in Philadelphia, which we notice is so lacking in Allegheny County. This is a part of a plan in Philadelphia County that creates more jobs and gives the New Deal party more opportunity to spend money. I ask that this bill be voted down.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, whether he is basing his statements on facts or opinions.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am basing them on the information that I have received.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I presume the scientific way would be to base them upon his investigation and facts. Now the information of the Senator from Tioga in this respect is not correct as to conditions in Philadelphia.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it is based upon information of facts that I received, information about the New Deal party.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, how would those conditions relate to Philadelphia.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I happened to live in Philadelphia and went to school in Philadelphia and I go there quite frequently; I have talked to people and I have been here in the Senate and had by eyes and ears open all during this session, and I think no one can sit in this session without knowing what is going on in Philadelphia. An act has already been passed transferring jobs to the Coroner, and it happens to be a Democratic controlled office. Now when this bill comes along it gives the Coroner the right to spend money without the consent of council and he can buy ambulances and appoint people to ten new jobs, now it does not take a Philadelphia resident to know what is going on with reference to this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Has the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Steifel, completed his interrogation.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I will not waste the time of the Senate.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to correct one statement that the Senator from Tioga made, and that was that the Coroner of Philadelphia County accidentally happens to be a Democrat. I believe that that was done purposely by the people of Philadelphia. However, I will ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to correct some information about the City of Philadelphia. The Coroner operates the morgue and takes entire care of a body until a certain time, and that is after the anatomical board is through with it, then instead of taking the body and sending it back to the morgue and disposing of it by the Coroner, who has charge of it all the time, the Coroner is permitted by the County Commissioners and their Department to come in and take charge of these bodies. Now it is not a political proposition at all, and, for the benefit of the Senator from Tioga, I am willing to say that there have been probably a number of things done to correct political conditions, and this just happens to be one of those things that ought to be corrected. There is no reason why there should be a double handling of these bodies and a double expense incurred. The Coroner has the authority to take care of this matter when he gets the bodies in the beginning. It is more logical and reasonable that he should take care of them, and he could take all of the bodies from the morgue and after they are returned by the anatomical board, if they cannot use them, and he buries the bodies. This might have a political tinge of color to it,—I am willing, for the purpose of the argument, to admit that, and nobody can deny, as a practical proposition, that until the matter can be taken care of so that the Coroner may be eliminated, as it should be, so that the handling of these bodies can be turned over and an examination made by the district attorney's office, where it belongs, until then this matter of handling of the body by the Coroner should be completed by him.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the common substance of the argument of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is that the power has already been transferred. this is for the purpose of creating a long list of new jobs. The bill already passed, they tell us, has been signed by the Governor.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, informant of the Senator from Tioga is quite capable and quite able, but he is misforming the Senator from Tioga, because the bill does not create any new jobs at all, the bill merely gives the Coroner the right to have this situation under his control. As a matter of fact if the informant of the Senator from Tioga had been alive to the situation, he would have grabbed this opportunity, which has existed until this bill was brought before us, to exercise the rights which he has, but he has not. The whole trouble is that the gentleman from Philadelphia who is the informant in question, does not know and has not realized that the board could be under his control if he had been alive to the situation. This bill takes it out of his control.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the constitution, and were as follows:

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.
